1. A prospective member may attend three meetings as a visitor. An applicant seeking membership may apply after any of the three visitor meetings. Membership may be denied if another applicant joins in the same business category before a visitor applies for membership (see number "2" below).
2. Membership is limited to ONE member per business category. If there is "business overlap" between a visitor and a current Show-Me Network member, the current member may request membership be denied.
3. Membership is subject to review and acceptance by the Show-Me Business Network.
4. Monthly or yearly membership fees are due upon membership acceptance. Fees are non-refundable, without exception. If membership fees are not kept current, membership may be considered inactive.
